SedonaOffice 5.6.0.207 Release Notes

Corrected a problem in Payroll Timesheet entry where the amounts were always going back to the technician rate.

Corrected problem in splitting RMR items where the Job Code assigned to the original RMR item was not being brought over to the new ones.

Corrected a problem in the Cancellation Queue where the cancelled RMR item did was save not save to the RMR tracking with the original Job Code.

Corrected a problem introduced in 5.6.200 where creating a new customer from the wizard was not assigning a default billing address. This caused error when trying to invoice for a new customer from the customer tree.

Corrected a problem when creating a deposit batch where the regional settings are assigned to the UK. (Or any country where the currency is not "$")

Corrected a problem in posting deferred income for non "$" based currency.

Corrected problem when creating a purchase order from a job where the category assigned to the job was being changed to the one assigned to the vendor selected.

Corrected a problem in the Parts Explorer where a return to vendor would no longer be accessible if the option was checked for "Close- No Credit Expected"

Corrected problem supporting UK phone number formats.

Corrects reported problem creating service tickets through main application

Corrects reported problem with purchase orders

Corrects reported problem creating new customers found in .202

New enhancement that shows the Committed Quantities and lists what currently been assigned to open jobs and not yet issued. Displayed on the Parts Explorer under the default warehouse.

New Enhancement that adds six additional user defined tables to the service module.